AID COLORED SCHOOL

Contributors to Industrial Institute Announced.

Project Outlined by Rev. S. Geriah Lamkins and Indorsed by Commissioner Macfarland and Others. Fifty Thousand Dollars Needed Before Beginning Operations.

The movement to establish in the District of Columbia a training and industrial school for the colored youth of both terday afternoon.

The project has received the indorsement of members of the Chamber of Commerce, the Board of Trade, and the Dis-trict authorities, Commissioner Macfar-devoted much time and effort toward the establishment of the school, was the first speaker. It is intended, he stated, to speaker. It is intended, he stated, to raise $50,000 before beginning building operations, and it is expected that this will be accomplished by October 1. Announcements were made that John B. Henderson, ex-Senator from Missouri, has contributed $1,000 to the proposed institution; Mrs. Clara A. Hay, widow of John Hay, Secretary of State, $100, and Dr. William E. Chancellor $100.

Unknown Donor Adds $1,200. To this sum Judge M. W. Gibbs, of who does not desire that his name be Detroit, Mich., is as follows: mentioned has contributed $1,200 toward a site in Maryland, near the District, to be used as a farm in connection with the school. John Joy Edson has been named Hon. H. St. George Tucker, president of the expo as trustee of the institution. In reference to the needs of such an institution Dr. Lamkins said:

'Washington, to the negro, is the Athens of America. We have more educated negroes in Washington than can be found in any other city on earth; we have more professional men, more lawyers, doctors, preachers, and more school yers, doctors, preachers, and more school teachers—but these represent a very small per cent of the 100,000 negroes in the District of Columbia. We have more colored schools here than we have in any other city, and some of the best equipped.

We have schools of all kinds. Of late we have seen an inscription of an unknown school—the National Training and Industrial Institute. It is this unknown school—it is this industrial school that I have come to declare unto you to-day; of the negro boys and girls of the Disas paster in the nation's Capital for the people, and I must confess that as I the accompaniment of the Exposition Band. have witnessed the deplorable condition of many of them, my heart has been stirred within me. There are 20,000 of pur people living in the alleys and other insanitary places of this city. I am not one of those who believe that only bad people live in the alley; on the contrary, I believe that there are some of as good had done for others, we were led to ex-pect "forty acres and a mule;" instead of being taught how to make a dollar and save a part of it, we were taught t seek political preferment; the result was we got office and position before we wer to properly administer them in cases; the few were benefited at the expense of the many; to wrest t power from our hands, the lowest postons and prejudices were appealed to hence the strife of the past.

no one can deny; the names of Robert Brown Elliott, B. K. Bruce, John M. Langston, and last, but not least, the immortal Frederick Douglass will live as

Praised by Macfarland,

Commissioner Macfarland, after referring to the needs of education and indus-peals to me, because it is led by a colored man, and supported by colored men and women. What you do for yourselves is worth a hundred times what others do for you. I hope to see the colored people themselves, proud of their remarkable progress since 1865, and of the possibillites of their future, contribute largely to this institution, which will do so much to this institution, which will do so much for the youth of their race."
